

The Little Britches Youth Association (LBYA) has been benefiting the youth of Elbert, Douglas, and numerous surrounding counties for over 30 years. With the extensive growth of population in this area, our organization has grown to a membership level of over 100 youth participants today. LBYA is a non-profit organization, organized under section 501© (3) of the Internal Revenue code, run entirely by the parents, members and volunteers devoted to the promotion of junior rodeo and the continued support of our nation's youth. The aim and purpose of the organization is directed toward the interest of the western-minded youth of the nation. We feel there is a need for wholesome youth programs, with sufficient community interest, and enough enthusiasm to support it.

LBYA holds 8 annual rodeos in Kiowa, Colorado each year for our cowboys and cowgirls, ages 6 through 18. There are six divisions for contestants: Pee Wee Girls, Pee Wee Boys, Junior Girls, Junior Boys, Senior Girls and Senior Boys.

Points are accumulated through the 8-week series for top honors. We also have educational meetings and functions for the members throughout the year. We strive to build sportsmanship, responsibility and provide an enjoyable family pastime for everyone involved.

The highlight of our season and what each contestant eagerly looks forward to is our annual Awards Ceremony and Banquet. Each year we award the contestants with all-around awards, participation, attendance, sportsmanship and many other general awards. The awards consist of buckles, trophies, tack and saddles. Due to the extensive growth of the program we deemed it necessary to develop a sponsorship program to help offset the cost of the awards. Individuals or businesses that would like to support our youth are able to do this at different levels.
